Topic:	Aftermarket Parts Retirement for S-254 Meter Assembly: 19747-X series no longer available for purchase

Dear Channel Partners,

Aquafine has made the difficult decision to stop taking new orders for the 19747 series of UV Intensity meters due to the age of the technology and inability to source subcomponents going forward. This includes both the vertical and horizontal options. Attached is a list of the affected parts. We will advise of any updates/alternates related to 19747-X if and when they become available.

Affected Parts:
